

STREET TREE FACT SHEET

DROOPING SHE-OAK

BOTANIC NAME

Allocasuarina verticillata

DESCRIPTION

Suitable as a street tree or shade tree, very useful on coastal sites and windy locations where the choice of a suitable tree is sometimes limited.

Flowers late Autumn making the tree appear more yellow-brown in colour. Male flowers having a golden brown appearance while female flowers have a red-brownish appearance.

WHY HAS THIS SPECIES BEEN CHOSEN?

We have selected this tree because it is:

- Native.
- Drought tolerant once established.
- Salt tolerant.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Height:	7-9m tall
Width:	6m
Growth rate:	Moderate/fast
Maintenance:	Low
Evergreen / Deciduous:	Evergreen
Flower colour:	golden to red

* Estimated at 20 years in good growing conditions

